THREE VETERANS

...from the DISPATCH staff will be lost early next week. Their loss will be keenly felt for among them are two top-notch artists and one dependable technician. Dick Kurihara and James Matsuo are the artists and Mas Ogawa is the technician who will be leaving.

Departure of James Matsuo leaves Kunio Otani the sold survivor of the original Dispatch staff when it was known as the Bulletin. Also the departure of the two artists leave newcomer Fumi Watanabe and Mas Inada.

CONFERENCE SEEMS

...to be a good excuse to leave the Project. First it was the Buddhists who sent out delegates to attend a confab, to which yours truly was fortunate enough to go. Now we see many Christian youths going out to attend the many conferences of the G. R.s and other Christian groups. But once on the outside it surely is tough to come back to the Project and lead a routine life again.

SPEAKING OF

...conferences, the Tule Lake Bussei enjoyed a 3 day meet last week end. The attendance at the various forums was somewhat disheartening but the group that did show up made up in interest what was lost in attendance.

Turn-out at the religious part of the program however was surprisingly large, especially at the outdoor service on Sunday morning.

George Shintaku, Shintaku, Oto, Usui, Noguchi, Tomita, Watanabe, Shimasaki, Hatamiya, Uyeno, Kawai, Shintani, Kawano, Nishida, et al should by now be well caught up in their sleep.

CPL. TIM ARAI

...pulled into the Project recently. Says he, "Sure is good to eat Japanese foodstuff and fish (!!!) after eating pork day in and day out."
